FIGHT ON PARTY LINES

Gives Out Emphatic Statement Which Makes It Clear He Will Abide Convention's Action.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.-William Randolph Hearst will support the nomition whoever he may be. He to-day authorized the Washington Post to make ny Dispatch, which said that Mr. st, Mr. Arthur Brisbane, Mr. Bryan a few others were preparing to bolt. Foolish Things Said.

"I have been making my fight for the nomination in the name of progressive Democracy," said he. "I have been making my fight within party lines."

This Mr. Hearst emphasized in explanation of his standing as a loyal Democrat, before "loyal Democrats," not men who have been Democrats at pleasure or for profit.

An inquiry was made about the significance of the several contesting Hearst delegations over the country.

In McCoy-O'Brien Bout There Is No Knock-Out and Fight Is Scientific One.

WAS ANYBODY'S VICTORY

Honors Were Evenly Divided in the Six Rounds-Kid Had Steam With Him.

(By Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 14.-"Kld" McCoy and Jack O'Brien to-night fought one of the most scientific six-round bouts ever seen in this city at the Second Reglinent Armory. At the close of the bout it would have been a difficult task to pick the winner. McCoy had the best of the third and fourth rounds, while O'Brien had the "Kid" in trouble at the close round. McCoy was victously in distress at the end of the sixth round. He repeatedly ran away from O'Erien, and peatedly ran away from O'Brien, and only attempted to counter when O'Brien led. There were no marks on McCoy, while O'Brien's left eye was bleeding. O'Brien's blows lacked force, and this fact alone probably saved McCoy from being knocked out. O'Brien landed the greatest number of blows, and McCoy's punches had more steam behind them. THEY ENTER THE RING.

The woman was carried to the City Hospital. She was treated by Dr. Leenard, but there is little hope of her recovery, as about 10 o'clock, she sank into unconsciousness, from five wounds-one behind the left ear, one in the back of the head, one behind the left shoulder, one on the left arm, and one on the left hand. O'Brien landed a left on the face, and a light left on the stomach. They rushed to a clinch. McCoy landed a light left on O'Brien's stomach, and they clinched. They fiddled for a second and McCoy then landed a left to the face. They again rushed to a clinch. O'Brien drove his left to the face, and the Kid broke ground. O'Brien had done all the leading in this round, but his blows lacked ferce some the hospital, but he was put off Co.,

He Has Decided Not to Make an Attack on Lieo Yang-Hurrying Troops to Mukden.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch, Copyright, 1904.). By Paul Lambeth.

LONDON, May 14—A telegram received here from laken to-day says that Kuropatkin has decided not to give battle at Lieo Yang and is hurrying his forces back to Mukden and Harbin as rapidly as they arrive from the southern garrisons. The reason given for this action is that both Llao Yang and Mukden are growed danger of heins outlanked by Arthur, and there has been the usual crop of rumors. One of them has it that the Japanese already have made an assoult and captured the place, but this in all probability is premature. It is hardly probable that Oku has yet made the necessary arrangements for so difficult an undertaking. It seems to be pretty well conceded among military men, however, that the place will be taken by assault before very long. It is hardly probable that there has been anything more than picket firing for the past few days, and this will probably keep up for several days longer.

The Japanese commiders have shown that they possess the virtue, patience and are satisfied to wait until they are fully ready to strike before going forward. The transportation of an army over lower Manchuria is no child's play, even without fear of opposition when forced by an enemy of almost equal strength fighting on the defensive it becomes a very serious military problem and progress necessarily must be slow. However it has been two weeks since Kuroki crossed the Yalu and almost as long since Oku landed on Liao Yang and a collision ought to be very near.

Adams Thursday, cutting the railway at that point.

A disquieting report comes from Major-General Pflug, Viceroy Alexieft's chief or staff, to the effect that an uprising of the Chinese is imminent against not alone the Russians but all white people at Dapadigital, near Kouan Chen. It is feared that there may be other uprisings of the Chinese in territory evacuated by the Russian troops. General Pflug also reports several skirmishes between pickets of the Jupanese forces advancing on Line Yang and Russian scouting parties. A division of Japanese is advancing another that General Kuropatkin had decided that he was strong enough to strike a blow on the offensive, and that he intended to attempt to crush the Japanese columns is

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DOSWELL, VA., May 14.—The lifeless body of Charles H. Lowry, a well known citizen, of this county, was found in his burn at Verdon to-day. Death resulted from a wound in the neck, which was apparently self-inflicted with a knife.

Mr. Lowry had been employed as car inspector at Deswell for the railroads for twenty years. On account of poor heaith, which seemed to affect his mind, he has been on a furlough several months.

He stopped plowing at noon, but failed to appear at dinner.

Investigation by his son resulted in finding the body resting on some hay with two ghastly wounds in the neck to account for his absence.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., May 14.—
The negro tramp who was killed in the Rockfish wreck and was brought to an undertaking establishment in this city has been sent by the railroad authorities to his home in Charlotte, N. C. His name was Andrew Jordan. The circumstances surrounding his death are somewhat peculiar. After his headlong fall from the top of the Pullman to the bank of the Rockfish River, a diatance of fifty feet, he got upon his feet, conversed freely with several passengers, and then sat down on a rock and suddenly expired. As no bruise or scratch could be found anywhere about him, it is supposed that he was ruptured internally.
